

ELIZADE UNIVERSITY, ILARA-MOKIN, ONDO STATE.
PROF YEMI OSIBAJO FACULTY OF LAW
SECOND SEMESTER 2018/2019 ACADEMIC SESSION
BACHELOR OF LAWS (LL.B.) DEGREE EXAMINATION

HUMAN RIGHTS LAW II (PIL 206)

Answer 4 (Four) questions.

Time Allowed: 2 ½ Hours

1. In the realm of International Law of Human Rights, certain classes of people are categorised as vulnerable groups.
 - (a) Discuss the most important of all the United Nations Conventions dealing with the Rights of Women.
 - (b) Comprehensively discuss the Convention on the Rights of the Child (CRC) 1989.

2. Under the Human Rights, certain classes of people are referred to as minorities. Discuss these groups and the rights available to them.

3. Briefly discuss the impediments to realization of Human Rights.

4. (a) A violation of one of the rights is a violation of other rights. Discuss.
 - (b) Give examples of human rights violation?

5. Discuss briefly what you understand by the African Commission on Human and People's Rights under the African Charter.

6. Discuss the Roles and Organization of the International Non-Governmental Organizations (INGOs) and Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs).